

ACTIVE OPTICAL HDMI CABLES

Now Featuring Covid's AOC HDMI with Detachable DP, HDMI and DVI Options

Covid's new Active Optical Cables (AOC) offer high bandwidth at long distances with no external power needed for most models. They are available in shielded and unshielded as well as with and without detachable connectors. Covid also sells a variety of AOC products that come in several lengths. Use the chart below to choose the AOC that best fits your needs.

Which HDMI AOC Is Right For You?

While all Covid AOC HDMI cables offer many benefits, only the P-HDADC offers detachable DP, HDMI and DVI options.
